1. 16th ANNUAL SPRING GATHERING held at Veranda Springs, Parrish, was attended by 30 of the faithful. Brief, of necessity, Canonical Toasts were proffered by several of the clan. David McCallister took the "Spring Gathering" a tad too literally when he really "Sprung it on 'em"! After Spring was sprung, Judy Buddle made a NOBL effort to lead the chorus in a song, Dave McC recited his 'No-Bull Bachelor' continuing saga, and Ben Wood gave a short monograph on 'Recollections of William Gillette'. 'Nobel Quiz Prize' winners were: Phyllis Minton (Watson level) & Laura Henderson (Mycroft level). All in all a jolly good time was had by all - apun my word!
2. Joan & Ben Wood will attend the fabulous quintennial Sherlockian Dinner on May 4th, held at the famous Culinary Institute of America, in Hyde Park, N.Y.. As B.S.I. Chaplain, Ben will give the Blessing.
3. Round-Robin Pastiche Ready! I'm sure if you would carefully peruse the Guinness Book of Records you would discover that the P.P. of F. holds the record for Round-Robin S'ian Pastiches - 10 in all - count 'em! The participants in our latest (the first came out in '75) opus, "The Doc-Croakers' Dirk", were: Dave McCallister, John Kalajian, Duane Damon, Judy Buddle, Jeff Dow, and your Recorder. Special kudos go to free-lance writer, Duane Damon, who labored long & hard setting up the "photo-ready" copy. This project is a PPF fund-raiser, so order your copy now. Ordering particulars are noted below.
4. The Forthcoming Fall Gathering is tentatively scheduled for Sat., Nov. 2nd - Jeff & Wanda Dow serving as hosts. Further details and sign-up procedures in due course. 10-4.
