1. Summer Doldrums? - Certainly not in the Sherlockian world. It's a great time to re-read the Canon, or perhaps write a pastiche or create a puzzle. Speaking of pastiches, the PPoff has been famous for its 'round-robin' pastiches. Isn't it about time we cranked out another? Drop me a line if you would be interested in participating. We'll need a 'starter' (that's the easy part), about 3-4 'continuers', and a 'concluder' (the toughie). We will also need a clever Title - although that might hinge on the story theme. I will act as the coordinator, but could use help with editing & proofreading. I'll have it printed up in a chapbook format as a fund-raiser for the PPoff. This would be the 10th 'round-robin' by members of the PPoff.

2. Sherlock is Everywhere! PPoff'er Reggie Hudson (Martha's boy) wrote of his travels returning home following the Fall Gathering: "Upon entering Floral City, off I-75, we spotted Baker Street on the left. Turning onto US 41, we drove north to Inverness, passing Watson Street. Once in Inverness, we turned and encountered a Holmes Street!" (Right: Young Ian Hudson reaching for Sherlock Holmes)→

3. Dynamic Duo - Mike Carroll, music prof emeritus of St. Pete JC, and your Recorder are teaming up to publish a new Sherlockian Sing-Along booklet suitable for Scion gatherings. Perhaps we'll get a sneak preview at the Fall Gathering on Nov. 3rd. National publication is scheduled for Jan. 6, '91. It should be a popular item and generate a fine return for the PPoff coffers.

4. FALL GATHERING: Be sure to mark you calendar - Saturday, November 3rd, 11:30am - 3:00pm, at Mike & Mary Carroll's.

In charge of the program is Dave McCallister

Contact Dave if you have something to contribute to the program. A sign-up notice will be mailed out prior to the Gathering, which will give a map of directions to the Carrolls, cost, and the Conanical Adventure to be discussed & quizzed upon.

ANOTHER DYNAMIC DUO!

WANDA & JEFF DOW

HOLMES, DID YOU READ ABOUT THE MANIAC THAT ROBBED THE BAKERY?

YES, HE REALLY TOOK THE CAKE!
